

Getting Back to our First Love/Sunday, March 18, 2018

There are many pitfalls in trying to lead the Spiritual life. One of them involves being too busy. This can occur in the lives of individual believers. But it can also occur in churches. Churches can become too busy with programs and doing and serving that they lose track of the main objective. Although in many cases they might be doing all the right things, they might have the right kind of zeal, they might be receiving the right kind of teaching, they lose track of their first love. This occurred in one of the seven churches in Revelation 2 and 3. This church is the church at Ephesus. Ephesus was a sound church. It had deeds. But somewhere along the line the church at Ephesus lost focus on their first love, The Lord Jesus Christ. Losing our first love will be the main focus of our session this morning.
